IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TWO DAYS OF ACTIVITIES PLANNED FOR USD PARENTS

SAN DIEGO, Calif.--Two days of festivities will mark Parents Weekend, March 27 and 28, at the University of San Diego.

The Spring Festival will be the highlight Saturday, with games, booths, art work and food. The students will have the opportunity to race sail boats in the swimming pool, fly kites and express themselves artistically on a huge blank canvas. All activities will be at the Student Sport Center, on Linda Vista Road.

The festival hours are from noon to 1 a.m. Dancing will begin at 8 p.m. in the gym, with The Checkerboard Square providing the music.

Sunday's activities begin with masses at 10 and 11 a.m. in the Chapel in Founders Hall, followed by brunch in the Students' Dining Hall. Students and parents will then tour the campus.

At 2 p.m. the Rev. Msgr. John E. Baer, president of the University of San Diego, and Sister Nancy Morris, president of the USD College for Women, will join with members of the faculty in greeting the parents. The reception will be held in Founders Hall.

The last event on the program will be the USD Glee Club concert, directed by Dr. Henry Kolar, at 3 p.m. in the Camino Hall Theatre.

The Spring Festival is organized by the Rev. Benjamin Carrier, university chaplain. Members of the festival committee are Gregory Daulton, 1111
